Free Indeed!

The greatest freedom we have is our freedom in Christ. When we study His Word, we learn how to live in His freedom. As we live in His freedom, our life will reflect everything He is and will point others to Him.

"Then Jesus said...If you abide in My word, you are My disciple indeed. And you shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free....Most assuredly I say to you, whoever commits sin is a slave to sin...Therefore if the Son makes you free, you shall be free indeed."

What is the most important thing in your life?

Do Not Fear the Dark

Lord, I regard Your presence and my relationship with You as the most important thing in my life. Help me to never doubt it or take it for granted. In the times when You are testing my faith and my love for You, I pray that I will draw ever closer to You. Even in the most difficult situations of my life right now, I know that You are in control and will turn things around and bring good out of it. I refuse to allow fear or a lack of faith to keep me from walking victoriously in all You have for me.

“For You will light my lamps; the Lord my God will enlighten my darkness.” Psalm 18:28

Independence Day, also referred to as the Fourth of July or July Fourth, is a federal holiday in the United States commemorating the adoption of the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776. The Continental Congress declared that the thirteen American colonies regarded themselves as a new nation, the United States of America, and were no longer part of the British Empire.^[1] The Congress actually voted to declare independence two days earlier, on July 2.

Independence Day is commonly associated with fireworks, parades, barbecues, carnivals, fairs, picnics, concerts, baseball games, family reunions, and political speeches and ceremonies, in addition to various other public and private events celebrating the history, government, and traditions of the United States. Independence Day is the National Day of the United States.

It's July....
